Needle Pointers

Terry cloth tablecloths and napkins are becoming very popular because they are cheaper to use than paper and are machine washable and need no ironing.

A new hand-knitting yarn of acrylic fiber is for the knitter who is looking for something different to work with. It has a permanent reversible crimp built right into it. When wet the fiber relaxes and uncurls, but as it dries the crimp returns completely, restoring a garment to original size and appearance. So the home knitter need worry no longer about sweaters becoming baggy after long wear.

Scouring powder mixed with a little poster paint or water, makes a good mixture for decorating windows and mirrors!

Save plastic bags for storing seeds and bulbs.

IF you are one of the 15 million women who are frankly STOUT...

THERE'S GOOD NEWS FOR YOU IN THIS MESSAGE

If you wear dresses in a size from 38 to 60, you are probably one of the 15 million women in America who find it difficult to get just what they need in their size. Most stores, even the largest, concentrate on "regular" sizes so that even when your size is available you must always choose from a very small selection. And even then, the garments are rarely proportioned especially to fit your figure—to look smart, to help you look slimmer, to give you the feeling of being well dressed. So often, too, you must pay more just because you wear a larger size.

This is true not only of dresses and coats, but also of shoes, lingerie, corsets, bras, and all other items of wearing apparel.

It is no wonder then, that millions of women who once faced these very same problems solved them long ago by shopping for their apparel by mail from Lane Bryant.

And there's a very good reason. It is: Lane Bryant has, for over 60 years, specialized in wearing apparel for women like you.

Only $4.98 — Gay Sun Dress with Bolero Jacket of tubfast floral-print 80-square Cotton Percale. And only $4.98. Others $2.98 to $29.98. Coats as low as $12.98. Also suits, hats, shoes, underwear.

Bunny House For Easter

Elma Waltner

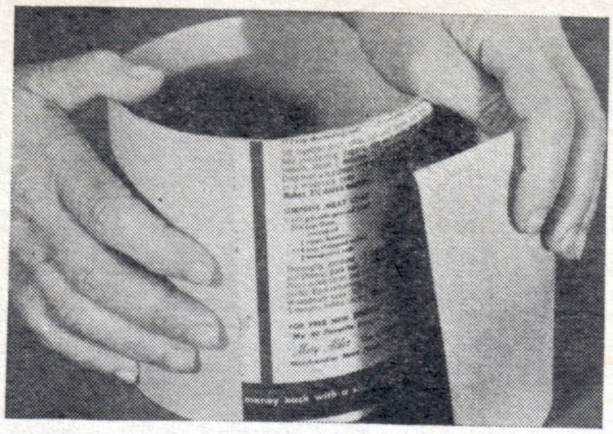
As a centerpiece or as a gift for your favorite small fry, the house in which the Easter Bunny has his headquarters will prove most popular. The fact that the roof lifts off and the inside of the house is filled with colored or candy eggs will add much to its appeal.

The house in which the Easter Bunny lives will delight the small fry.

For the house itself you will need a large size oatmeal box. Measure up 5 inches from the bottom. Mark around box at this point, with a pencil. Cut off the upper part of box following pencil line carefully to get a straight top edge. A sharp, thin-bladed knife is good for this job.

Cover outside of box with a strip of colored paper (Photograph 1). Cut a door and windows from colored construction paper and glue to the house.

Cut a circle of cardboard from upper part of box which you cut off.



Photograph 1

This should be about 1 inch wide. Cut out a 1-inch wide piece from this circle. Bring ends together and fasten by glueing brown paper tape over joint of two cut ends on inside and on outside. Cover outside of this circle with colored paper to hide printing. This is the roof rim. To make roof, cut a circle 8 inches in diameter from tagboard or light, flexible cardboard. Make a cut from edge of circle to center. Make roof into a cone by lapping cut edges about 4 inches and glueing overlapping paper together. Run a line of glue around top edge of roof-rim and fit roof down onto rim. The edge of roof should overhang rim evenly all around (Photograph 2).

Cover roof with green or brown crepe paper thatch. To make this cut a piece about 1-inch wide from a fold of crepe paper. Fringe paper from one edge to within about ¼-inch of other edge. Glue fringed strip of paper around and around roof, beginning at bottom edge and

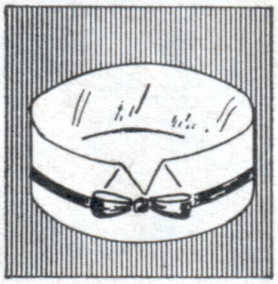
Women Who Make Cents

Drawn Thread Work

Having learned drawn thread work as a child, I recently brushed up on the skill and have found that these items sell very well. Perhaps this is because few people have the time required to learn and to do this sort of work. I make handkerchiefs of Irish linen and work one corner, names or initials and a border all around. I charge $1.25 for corners and $1.50 each for names and borders. I also make guest towels for $2.50.

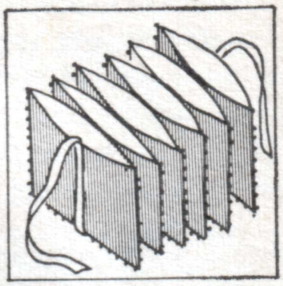
Thelma Dowling



Cuff Link Boxes

To make an unusual cuff link box that looks like an old fashioned man's shirt collar and tie, spray paint a tuna fish can white. Then cut vertically halfway down side and fold back points from cut to make collar. Line container with red felt and place a black ribbon bow tie around center of the outside, tied under collar points. I sell these boxes for 75c each.

Mrs. Mary Dodge

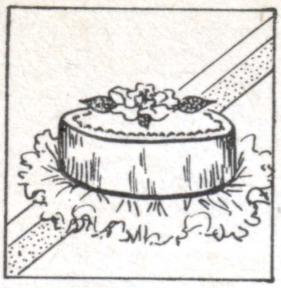


Accordion Jewel Cases

Women who travel a great deal, college girls and many men find my easy-to-make accordion jewel cases are perfect for protecting their rings, watches, necklaces and cuff links. To make them, I cut five rectangles of felt or heavy flannel, 6½ x 4½ inches. Taking a half-inch seam, I stitch the two 3¼-inch sides of each pocket, leaving tops open. I use pinking scissors around each raw edge and attach bags together at tops. This is done by stitching top edge of one bag to top edge of another bag, making an accordion. Then I make a felt or thread loop on both edges at each end, and fasten a velvet ribbon on center bottom of middle bag. Bringing ends up and through loops, I tie to close bags. These cases sell for $2.00 and if tastefully decorated with seed pearls, sequins and similar trims will bring more.

Mary Ann Adams

The WORKBASKET will pay $2 for each short article accepted for this department. Material should concern specific women who have found ways to add to the family income. Address all contributions to Women Who Make Cents, The WORKBASKET, 543 Westport Road, Kansas City 11, Mo. No contributions to this department will be returned.



Pin Boxes

To make these new pin boxes, I glue colored felt around a large plastic zipper container. I then add two rows of pretty rickrack. Using net in a color matching the felt, I gather and glue it to the bottom. Net should be 12 x 1½ inches. Top of box is covered with felt also and one row of rickrack. I usually add a small artifical flower to top. These make pretty pin boxes or favor cups for little girls' parties. Anyone who sews a great deal soon collects many of the materials needed and they sell well at 40c each.

Phyllis Ziska

Handy Laundry Basket

Using a half bushel or bushel fruit basket, I enamel the outside and line inside with a fitted plastic sheet. If plastic is allowed to extend about a foot above basket at sides it may be folded over to double as a dampening basket when ironing time arrives. Pockets to hold clothespins are pulled through handles and allowed to hang outside of basket. Materials for these handy laundry baskets cost no more than 75c, but they sell for $1.25 to $2.50 depending on size and work involved.

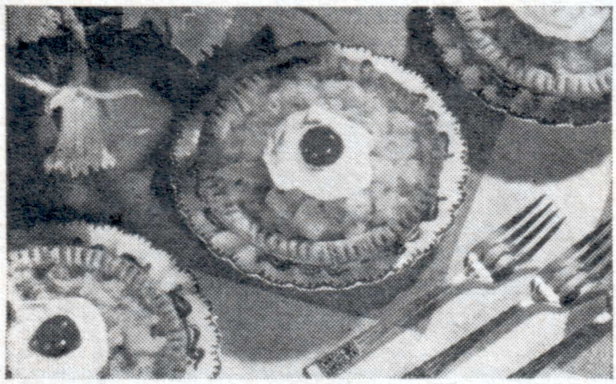
'Tis Dessert Time

DESSERTS for spring appear in many shapes. When springtime is in the air thoughts turn to parties—and parties always call for a very special dessert. Refreshing pineapple and taste surprising raisins are featured in some interesting favorites.

Open faced pineapple tarts can be made in a jiffy. There are many versatile recipes given that can be used in a variety of ways and perfect to serve when company is coming for dessert and coffee.



Pineapple Open-Faced Tarts with their bright golden color adds a spring-like touch to any occasion they're featured.

Pineapple Open-Faced Tarts

- 1 (number 2) can crushed pineapple
- ½ cup brown sugar (packed)
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- ⅛ teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 6 baked (3-inch) tart shells
- ½ pint heavy cream, whipped

Combine pineapple, brown sugar, cornstarch and salt. Cook over low heat until thickened and clear, about 5 to 8 minutes. Stir in butter. Cool. Spoon into baked tart shells and top with whipped cream. Makes 6 servings.

Frosted Apple Pie

- pastry for 2-crust pie
- 3 large apples
- ½ cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon flour
- ⅛ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon ground nutmeg
- ½ teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1 tablespoon butter
- ¼ cup confectioners' sugar
- 2 teaspoons water
- ¼ teaspoon lemon extract

Prepare pastry for 2-crust pie. Roll out half of pastry and line a one-quart deep saucepan. Then roll out remaining half of pastry for top crust. Make slits in top crust pastry.

Peel, core and slice apples. Arrange half of apple slices in pastry-lined saucepan. Mix together ½ cup sugar, flour, salt, nutmeg and cinnamon. Spoon about half of this mixture onto apple slices in saucepan. Add remaining apple slices and sprinkle with rest of sugar mixture. Dot with butter.

Place top crust over apples and flute around edge of saucepan. Bake in hot oven, 400° F., about 50 minutes or until apples are done. Cool before decorating with frosting.

Mix together until creamy ¼ cup confectioners' sugar, the water and lemon extract. Dribble this frosting over top crust in lattice pattern. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

Kiss Cake

- 6 egg whites
- 2 cups sugar
- 1 tablespoon vinegar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Beat egg whites until dry; fold in sugar; add vinegar and vanilla and mix well. Grease a 10-inch pan heavily. Mound mixture toward center of pan. Start in a cold oven; bake at 300° for 25 minutes. Cut "cake" in serving pieces and cover with ice cream, chocolate or other dessert filling. Top with fruits, if desired.

For old-fashioned goodness, try Pineapple Upside Down Banana Cake served warm with whipped cream.

Pineapple Upside Down Banana Cake

- ⅔ cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons pineapple juice
- ¼ cup chopped nuts
- 1 tablespoon chopped maraschino cherries, drained
- 12 canned pineapple spears
- ¼ cup butter
- ½ package (2¼ cups unsifted) banana cake mix
- ½ cup plus 2 tablespoons water
- 1 egg unbeaten

Spread sugar evenly in an 8 x 8 x 2-inch square pan; sprinkle with pineapple juice, nuts, and cherries. Arrange pineapple spears on sugar mixture in an attractive design. Dot with butter. Set aside.

Empty cake mix into small bowl. Add water and egg. Beat 2 minutes until smooth and creamy. Pour batter carefully over fruit mixture in pan. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 50 to 55 minutes. Cool cake in pan 5 minutes. Then invert on serving plate or tray. Let stand 1 minute before removing pan. Serve cake warm with whipped cream.

Peachy Tapioca Pudding

- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- ⅓ cup sugar
- 3 tablespoons quick cooking tapioca
- ⅛ teaspoon salt
- 2¾ cups milk
- ¾ teaspoon vanilla
- 1 cup sliced canned or sweetened fresh peaches

Mix egg, sugar, tapioca, salt, and milk in saucepan. Let stand 5 minutes. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until mixture comes to a full boil and is slightly thickened—6 to 8 minutes. Remove from heat. Add vanilla. Cook, fold in peaches, and chill. Serves 4 to 5.

Nests of coconut filled with Easter eggs and marshmallow bunnies decorate this festive cake.

Easter Cake

- 1½ cups sifted cake flour
- 1½ teaspoons baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ⅜ cup shortening
- ¾ cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- ½ cup milk

Sift together flour, baking powder and ¼ teaspoon salt. Cream shortening with ¾ cup sugar until fluffy; add egg and one teaspoon vanilla and beat until very light. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk to creamed mixture, combining thoroughly. Spread batter in an eight-inch square heat-resistant glass cake dish. Bake in moderate oven, 350°F., for 30 to 35 minutes or until cake is done. Remove from oven and cool on rack.

Icing:

- ¼ cup cold water
- ¾ cup sugar
- 1/16 teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon cream of tartar
- 2 teaspoons light corn syrup
- 1 egg white
- ½ teaspoon vanilla extract
- few drops yellow food color

Place all icing ingredients except vanilla and color in top of heat-resistant glass double boiler. Beat with electric or hand beater until ingredients are combined. Place over boiling water; continue beating, and cook until frosting will stand in peaks, 4 to 7 minutes. Remove from heat; add ½ teaspoon vanilla and the yellow color and beat until thick enough to spread. Spread on cooled cake.

Decoration:
- 2/3 cup moist shredded coconut
- 20 jelly bean eggs
- 4 big marshmallows
- green and red food color

Measure coconut in two-cup measure; add green color, mixing with fork until coconut is uniformly green. Make a nest of green coconut on each corner of cake and fill with jelly bean eggs. To make a bunny, elongate a marshmallow to an oval shape with fingers. With scissors, snip long triangular cuts to make ears; push ears up and forward. Shape nose, front feet and tail by pinching with fingers. Using red food color, paint on eyes, nose and mouth with toothpick. Place a bunny on or near each nest.

Baked Alaska

- 6 egg whites
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1 sponge layer cake
- 1 quart brick ice cream (hard)

Beat egg whites until foamy. Add salt, cream of tartar and vanilla. Beat until almost stiff enough to hold a peak. Gradually add sugar, beating until stiff enough to hold sharp peaks, but not dry. Cover wooden board with brown paper. Place cake on center of paper on board. Cake should be at least 1-inch wider and longer than ice cream. Turn ice cream out of container on center of cake. Cover ice cream and cake completely with meringue. With a spoon, swirl surface to make peaks. Bake in very hot oven (500°F.) until light golden brown, about 3 minutes. Remove from paper and board and put on a cold tray or cake plate and serve at once. (Brown in oven 5 minutes when Alaska is frozen.)

Pineapple Date Salad

- 1 regular size package (3 ounces) lemon flavor gelatin
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup boiling water
- canned pineapple juice and water to make 1 cup
- 3/4 cup diced canned pineapple
- 3/4 cup finely cut dates

Dissolve gelatin and salt in boiling water. Add pineapple juice and water. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold in pineapple and dates. Pour into individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Garnish with mayonnaise. Makes 6 servings.

"Because I was nervous to my fingertips, my doctor started me on Postum."

"You can imagine how it worried me, when I found it hard to thread a needle! Of course I wasn't sleeping very well, but I hadn't realized how unsteady I'd become. Time to see the doctor, I told myself.

"'Can't find anything wrong,' the doctor told me, 'unless maybe you've been drinking too much coffee.' It seems some people can't take the caffein in coffee. 'Change to Postum,' the doctor advised. 'It's 100% caffein-free—can't make you nervous or keep you awake!'

"Well—I've been blessing the doctor and Postum ever since! My nerves are much steadier, I sleep much better, and I really enjoy drinking Postum. My only regret is that I didn't change to Postum sooner!"

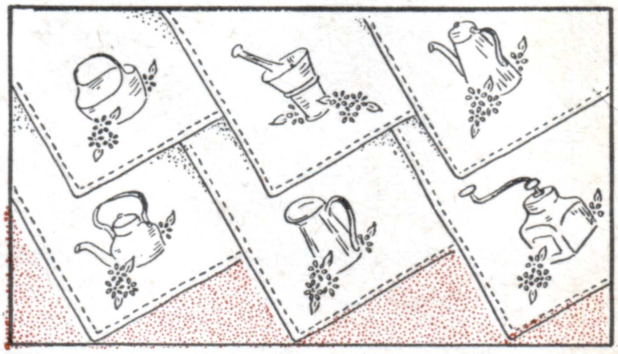
How To Use Designs

The removable center portion of this month's WORKBASKET contains some unusual designs for embroidery work or textile painting. Remove pages from magazine by holding the sheet on each side of staple and carefully pulling to keep from tearing it.

To place design on material, either trace with carbon paper or use a hot iron and place design (red side) down on material. To determine amount of heat needed, cut any small design and place on a piece of material, then place paper on top of design.

Heat iron very hot but safely below scorching. Press, moving iron constantly over entire paper surface to distribute heat slowly. If iron is at proper temperature, several seconds are required; if not hot enough it may take a minute or more to get a good stamping. Design comes off faint at first; press until as clear as desired. Additional stampings or designs come off more quickly if made before pattern cools off.



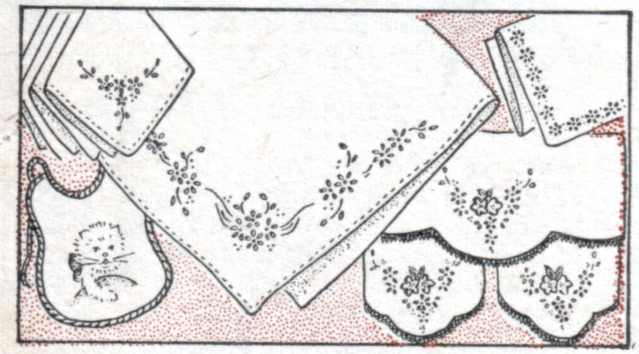
When experiments with a small design are satisfactory, cut out desired design, pin or baste in place. Many fabrics contain a filler that scorches easily, some are synthetic. Treat both carefully and protect above design with tissue, heavier paper or cloth.

These patterns are authentic replicas of copper kitchenware found in nearly every pioneer home.

Embroider in the new metallic threads of gold and silver. Silver or pure white outline stitch on medium grey percale, bright red or pink flowers with an off green foliage, or try a warm beige material with golden thread-bright orange flowers with brown accents. A set of these tea towels belongs in every home whose owner is interested in Early American Decor-Designs. These designs will be enchanting also on hand towels, curtains, table cloths, and place mats.

The spray of lazy daisy type flowers is attractive on tablecloths (small motif for napkins) or use on pillow slips. Try this design on pale yellow material—worked in brown thread, rose on pink—or use natural flower colors.

The small designs — ping pong, tennis, kitten, ball and glove, turtle, mouse and cheese, were especially designed for pockets of shirts and blouses but they would be suitable for sun suits and pinafores for the younger set.



Use the two rose designs singly or together on dresses, sweaters, and blouses. Work solid or in an outline stitch.

The triangular spray of flower blossoms will be lovely on dresser or vanity sets, place mats or other household articles.

Now is the time to start handmade gifts for the June bride. A gift of needlework shows thoughtfulness that is always appreciated.

NOW! Lifetime Hospitalization

GOLD STAR

Pays $100.00 Weekly from First Day for Life to readers of WORKBASKET

Here's good news for those of you who do not drink. Now, for the first time, you can get the newest and finest type of hospitalization coverage at an unbelievably low rate because the GOLD STAR Policy is offered to non-drinkers ONLY! Think of it! $100.00 weekly from the first day and for as long as you remain in the hospital!

ONE OUT OF TWO

Statistics show that one person out of two families will spend time in the hospital this year. Every day over 64,000 people enter the hospital . . . 47,000 of these for the very first time.

SURPRISING COMPARISON

Have you studied your present health insurance? Is it adequate? Do you realize that current room rates alone frequently run $20 to $30 a day? Can your present policy be cancelled at a time when you might most need it? Do benefits start the FIRST day you are hospitalized? GOLD STAR protection costs only $4 a month for each adult age 19 through 64, or $40 for twelve full months. For each child under 19 the rate is just $3 for a month's protection.

OUTSTANDING LEADERS SAY—

DR. DANIEL A. POLING, noted minister and Editor of The Christian Herald: "The advantages of a hospital plan which is available to non-drinkers only are obvious. The lower rate is made possible because you are not paying the bills for the illnesses and accidents of those who use alcohol."

J. C. PENNEY, Philanthropist, Founder of the J. C. Penney Company: "I have a sincere conviction that liquor is one of the chief causes of unhappiness both to people who drink and to those who are near and dear to them. Early in my life I decided not to touch liquor. I am delighted to know of the DeMoss Gold Star Total Abstainers' Plan that provides a premium rate so much lower."

COMPARE THESE LOW GOLD STAR RATES WITH THE LIBERAL BENEFITS YOU RECEIVE ON THE NEXT PAGE!

SENIOR CITIZENS POLICY FOR PEOPLE OVER 65

As you know, those over 65 frequently find it difficult to get hospitalization insurance. Not with GOLD STAR, Senior Citizens, 65 or over, pay only $6 per month or $60 per year. This policy has the SAME IDENTICAL liberal benefits as the standard GOLD STAR $100 per week policy, and IS GOOD FOR LIFE!

MONEY BACK GUARANTEE

I have been given an Easter lily and would like to know how to care for it after it has finished blooming? Mrs. G.P., Wisconsin.

The chances are this Easter lily is a "Croft" lily. The Croft lilies are hardy outdoors. The plant should be kept growing until it ripens the bulb. In May the bulb may be taken from the pot and planted in the garden 6 or 8 inches deep. Over winter it may need the protection of a three or four inch mulch of rotted compost. A bulb forced to bloom at Easter is useless for forcing again but it is all right for planting in the garden.

Can you tell me why my rhubarb grows so small? I have fertilized it plentifully. J. B., Illinois

If rhubarb is pulled the first year or heavily the second year after planting, it devitalizes the roots and causes the stems to get smaller. Also, allowing seedstalks to form causes the plants to go downhill. Keep all seedstalks cut off all summer. Old clumps of rhubarb, eight or more years old, often produce many eyes followed by small stems. Old clumps need to be dug up and divided. This may be done any time that the tops are dead. Remove all old dead wood at the roots. These may contain burrowing insects such as termites.

Why do the leaves of my African violet plants turn under? They continue to grow and flower but the plants do not look healthy. I have them in a west window. Mrs. H.P., Illinois.

Red spider mite is indicated when the leaves of the African violet are either cupped upward or rolled downward. Also the leaves become off-color, showing a white glistening color on the upper surface. The mites collect on the under side of the leaves and suck the sap from the leaves. Malathion in liquid form containing 55% malathion used at the rate of 1 teaspoonful to a gallon of water should clean up red spider mites. The spray must reach the underside of the leaves and should be used twice at intervals of ten days.

Why doesn't our blue spruce have a bluish color? The trees are about 3 feet high now but are still a light green with no blue overtones. Mrs. S. M. S., New York.

Seedlings of the Colorado blue spruce may vary from light green to blue with only a small percentage of them ever developing the bright blue color. Nurseries, in order to furnish trees that have the pronounced blue sheen, generally grow only grafted trees. These trees are uniformly blue exactly like the parent stock from which the scions are taken. Your trees will not change their color with age.

Why do my gloxinias grow so tall and spindly before they start to bloom? They get top heavy and fall over when in bloom. C. M. L., Minnesota

Your gloxinia may grow tall and spindly due to lack of light. They need shade but at the same time they must have good light if they are to grow stocky. Too much heat causes them to shoot up tall and spindly. Then, too, they should be grown in light rich soil. A mixture of leafmold, sand and a little well rotted cow manure should grow stocky plants. A heavy soil tends to produce spindly weak growth.

We have a rose of Sharon that is 6 feet tall and sparse. Can we prune it to make it branch out more? If so, when is the best time to prune it? K. D., Pennsylvania.

Early in the spring, about the time of the last killing frost, head back most of last year's growth to from one to four buds. Such heavy pruning will thicken the growth, and improve the bloom of the rose of Sharon.

Wisteria

Bernice Brilmayer

For covering pergolas, arbors, porches, terrace walls with a lavish display of exotic flowers, wisterias can't be beat. And they are one of the most permanent and lasting decorations you can plant on your property.

Of two general types, the Japanese wisteria with long, dripping clusters of smaller flowers in a wide color range, is somewhat smaller and more delicate in appearance and is less often planted. Because its flowers do not all open at once, it is colorful for a slightly longer period.

The more familiar Chinese wisteria will climb to great heights and, if not restrained, can completely smother a house. Its flower clusters are shorter and fuller; it is available in bluish-lavender tints, white, and pink.

Although the foliage is attractive, this vine is beloved for its flowers, which it sometimes fails to produce. One of the most frequent questions answered by gardening specialists is "what can I do to make my wisteria bloom?"

There is, of course, no single answer to fit every problem. The failure may have one of many causes. The plant may be too young —sometimes it takes seven years to produce a flower. The soil may be too rich in nitrogen which encourages leaf and stem growth, or lacking in phosphorous that produces flowers. The recommended remedy is to supply superphosphate dug into a two-foot trench around the roots.

Thirty-year-old white wisteria in full flower, effective against a rock wall.

In some areas, winter weather kills flower buds that were set the previous season. In this case, vines should be taken down off support and covered with hay, brush, or even soil during severe weather.

One of the most frequent reasons

Wisteria

wisteria fail to flower is lack of sun. They should never be planted in shade, seldom in semi-shade.

Occasionally this vine will produce root and top growth that is out of balance—a tremendous root system that is so busy feeding and growing, the stems and branches can't produce flowers. Root-pruning will often help. Force a sharp spade down into the soil in a circle about two feet away from the base of the main stem to cut off the side roots.

Your best insurance, of course, is to buy quality plants from a reputable nurseryman, preferably grafted plants, that have already flowered in the nursery. And it's wise to note that wisterias are notoriously slow in leafing out their first season in a new situation. Be patient, it may take until August.

To keep vines trim, neat and healthy, wisterias should be judiciously pruned once or twice a year. After flowering, in late spring or early summer, new shoots can be cut back to five or six leaves at the base of each shoot. After the plant is well established, it is likely to produce numbers of strong but unwanted shoots near the end of the summer. This surplus growth should be removed promptly and completely to keep the vine from twining into a tangle.

Ma Jobe's Favorite — Rose of Sharon

Catherine Hastings

Several years ago I laughed at the pretentious name which Ma Jobe gave her daughter, the only bit of beauty in her Grapes of Wrath life, but since then I have survived a few western dust storms and I have also acquired an Althea, or rose of Sharon, as I prefer to call it since the name Althea is often misused, is an exquisite, flowering shrub which grows in almost any environment.

The shrub blooms from midsummer until late fall, offering the gardener a wide choice of soft pinks and whites to deep purples and blues. Some varieties are single; others, double or semi-double. The large, rose-like flowers average 2 - 4 inches in diameter and cover the shrub in great profusion. Although its primary beauty is as a garden shrub, the rose of Sharon also makes a lovely cut flower.

Many beautiful arrangements may be created from the different varieties and colors.

Rose of Sharon will grow as a shrub or a trimmed tree. Since severe pruning does not interfere with its ability to flower freely, it makes a very satisfactory hedge plant. However, the shrub is bare until early summer when it begins to leaf out; therefore, it should be planted so that other shrubs will provide needed color during its dormant period. Sometimes newly transplanted shrubs wait as late as early July to leaf out.

By beginning with the early blooming shrubs and continuing through the fall with the rose of Sharon, one may easily plan a continuous display of flowering shrubs. Through careful selection and planting, the gardener may build a beautiful picture that will endure through the years with a minimum of maintainence and very satisfying rewards.

Althaea 'Blue Bird.'

As a tree, rose of Sharon can provide light shade for a small lot without harming grass or flowers planted nearby. It grows rapidly and helps fulfill the new homeowners need for landscaping a bare lot. These flowering trees give privacy because they branch low, yet they do not take up the space which would be required for trees.

"For Over 60 Years"

In pruning rose of Sharon to make it a tree, one should cut off all but the straightest, most erect shoot and stake it for a couple of years. If plant is on a single stem, it must not be pruned to the ground. Shapely plants may be promoted by pruning out old growth.

This shrub seems curiously immune to most of the diseases and pests which attack other plants. Aphids are known to attack the new growth, but a good spraying with Malathion can stop them easily. DDT will control beetles and other pests which might attack the shrub; however, it is probable that the regular spraying program which most gardeners follow as a matter of course will suffice.

Propagation may be by grafting, by seeds or by cuttings from hardwood taken in the fall. Since varieties do not come true to form from seed, it is probably best to try the cuttings in the fall months. For this purpose one-year-old branches are used. Too slender wood has little food stored in it. The cuttings should be taken during late autumn before branches are in a frozen condition. They should be approximately 8-10 inches in length, although they may be cut as long as two feet if one prefers. Shorter cuttings tend to dry out more quickly and cannot be properly firmed in soil. In making cutting, be sure that it has from two to three eyes or nodes. It is especially necessary to have an eye at top of cutting. It is important to keep cuttings as dormant as possible during winter months.

As soon as cuttings are made, they should be packed in peat moss which is not too moist and placed in a spot which is cool but not freezing. Cuttings should be placed right side up to prevent their rooting at wrong end.

In early spring cuttings should be set outdoors, where they will not be disturbed by cultivation. Pack soil carefully and tamp it firmly about cutting, being certain that there is no air pocket at base of cutting. Cuttings should remain in this location until next spring. Then while the plant is still dormant or just beginning to show green in the bud, transplant it to permanent location. Transplanting of young shrubs needs to be done early so that they may become well established before winter. Older plants may be safely transplanted at any time, even in fall months.

Two varieties which I have found particularly beautiful were the Coelestis or Celestial, a semi-double lavender blue, and the Hibiscus Crested Beauty, a single white variety with a crimson eye. Thus if one is a weekend gardener or a gardener who likes golf, rose of Sharon provides an ideal solution to the problem of time. Once established, it will provide a showy beauty with complete ease.

Dwarf Annuals

For gardens of limited space, for dressing up odd nooks and corners, for pleasure in window boxes and patio planters, try the dwarf annuals. Around the bird bath, banking a piece of statuary, edging walks and flower beds, dwarfs actually stand out because they are so "right" for the place you've planted them. There's pleasure in a mounded clump of miniature snapdragons, delight in every perfect flower of the lacy-leaved Brachycome, food for contemplation in the minute blue-eyed Nemophila.

In seed catalogs, carefully combed, you will find a surprising number of little-grown dwarf annuals. Sweet Wivelsfield, for example, looks like a pink except the colors seem brighter, the markings more distinct. It keeps well under ten inches.

Miniature Snapdragons "Magic Carpet" is only 6-8 inches tall.

Dwarf Annuals

The jewel-like Nemesia makes a miniature mosaic of colors in a sheltered sunny spot. Set plants close so the frail stems will support each other.

Feverfew (Matricaria) is a strong, bushy grower only eight inches tall. Seen closely, each white or yellow button-flower is a smooth sphere of tiny petals. From the edge of the bed, each plant makes a well-balanced, well-arranged bouquet.

The miniature wax begonias are good bedding plants too. The Tom Thumb varieties seldom stray above six inches and keep full-leaved and full-flowered up to frost. They need partial sun, perhaps under the high branches of a tree, not shade. And they're easily grown from seed started early indoors.

The globe amaranth, (Gomphrena) makes purple, clover-like flowers and thrives on heat and drought. Among the tiniest flowers are the snapdragon-like Linaria, called fairy bouquet or northern lights. The blue cup flower (Nierembergia) is on the delicate side, likes warmth and protection with some pampering. Its lacy leaves will form airy mounds covered with cupped purple flowers for weeks on end. And only six inches tall.

Swan River Daisy (Brachycome) flowers are no larger than a dime.

For semi-shade or the edge of a wild garden, plant Nemophila seeds outdoors when the soil is workable. The clear blue bell flowers are delightful, the hairy leaves prettily cut. Eight inches is tops.

The nine-inch California bluebell, bee's friend (Phacelia) flowers in dry, sandy soil. The gentian-like blue flowers show off best in a mass. Sow seeds outdoors when the soil is warm.

Of course, there are dwarf variations on larger plants, too—both the crested and feathered types of celosia; magic carpet snapdragons; cupid marigolds and several others.

These smaller annuals have a heart-tugging charm no showy giant can equal. And if your space is limited, they have added advantage of being in good proportion and excellent taste.

Best news for delphinium fanciers this year is the magic hybridists have worked to improve these stately aristocrats. Sturdier, wirier stems that stand up to whipping winds, increased resistance to deadly mildew, fuller, more symmetrical flower spikes in a wider range of colors, including purer pinks and a greater percentage of doubles are exciting.

Here's the ideal they're working toward—the delphinium of their dreams: at the base a cluster of clear, green leaves divided finger-fashion which repeats itself upward on the flower stalk; sturdy stems up to eight feet tall, two-thirds of which are densely covered with

"ARABIAN NIGHT"

So LOVELY! So BLACK!

A DAHLIA of startling beauty! Seeing it, you might easily imagine that Sinbad smuggled it out of the forbidden gardens of an oriental emperor, so surely it radiates mystery, romance and exotic splendor! Its decorative-type blossoms (about 3" across) are nearly jet black, fully double; a spectacular shading of maroon skirts the outer edge to heighten the drama. Its bush, about 3 feet high, bears a great profusion of long-stemmed blooms that make charming bouquets. Actually we found "Arabian Night" in Holland. Usually we sell these fine bulbs for 85¢ each, but now, to win new friends, we'll send you the same bulb for only 25¢ each. Sorry, no more than 4 bulbs to a customer ($1.00). Better hurry!

symmetrical cylinders or pyramids composed of blue, lavender, purple, blush, pink or white semi-double or double flowers; each flower two or more inches across with a spur outside and a prominent "bee" of small petals around the stamens inside, inside and outside of the same or contrasting colors. The perfect delphinium would be healthy, self-reliant and truly perennial—glorifying your garden year after year with little or no special care. Hybridists can't do anything about the poisonous leaves. Just don't let the children chew them.

Among the many types of delphinium the tall, commanding "candle" is most popular and it is in this group that the greatest hybridizing progress has been made. The Pacific Coast giants and most of the English types have outer petals of one color with a contrasting "bee." Smaller, more delicate and more frequently flowering is the Chinese or bouquet type, the so-called three foot "dwarf" with a neat branching habit. Cut it back regularly after flowers fade and you can have flowers for cutting all summer long.

The garland delphiniums are less spectacular in appearance but more resistant to difficult climates. These are listed in seed and plant catalogs as D. Belladonna and D. Bellamosum, pale and deep blue respectively. Occasionally you can find the white variety Moorheimi.

Delve into delphinium lore and you'll find out why these beauties are a northern gardener's substitute for lush, long-season flowers he envies in warmer climates. They're basically cool country plants. At least one species originated in Siberia. If you live in a warmer climate, treat delphiniums as biennials. Your climate is nearly perfect if you have cool nights and lots of mist. Even your soil is nearly perfect if it is rich, light and deep. But delphiniums need nearly neutral soil. If yours is acid, provide a light "snow" of horticultural lime scratched in around the base once or twice during the growing season. It's important when planting to dig and work the soil deep enough so that the mature roots can penetrate freely and to their full length. Dig at least two feet deep and deeper if your soil is heavy. Work in some compost or rotted manure in the bottom and also some coarse sand if your drainage is not of the best.

Also important to delphiniums is good circulation of fresh air. Plant them in open spots, never where air is cut off by shrubs or buildings. Space the giants at least two feet apart in all directions, the others

Hummingbird Feeder

Are you a birdwatcher? There are about 500 types of these little brilliantly colored birds with long, slender bills, whose rapidly moving wings make a humming sound in flight. It is likely you will have some types in your locale.

To make the feeder you will need a short length of wire, tuna or small pineapple can, a jar lid and liquid solder.

Make a tiny hole with an ice pick through the middle of the can and the jar lid. Put wire through the can, open side up and then through the lid with the screw portion up. Take pliers and make a bend on end below hole in lid and a hook at other end of wire to hang over a limb. Put liquid solder to hold lid which serves as feeder in place and solder can half way up on wire. Anchor it sufficiently with something to hold both the can and the lid in place until the solder hardens.

Fill the can with water and fill the feeder and hang it on a tree where you can watch for your little friends.

twelve to eighteen inches apart. By planting in an open spot, we also mean in full sun—no heavy shade from buildings or trees. On the other hand delphiniums can be whipped and broken by high winds if planted on top of a knoll or ridge.

To keep the soil as moist and cool as the roots require, water regularly during long dry spells. A two-inch mulch is also helpful. Stake taller varieties early in the season before they grow high enough to be whipped by the wind.

Any good balanced commercial fertilizer is fine. Apply first when the plants are uncovered in spring and again about ten days after first flowering is finished. Skull-and-crossbones caution: never let fertilizer touch the tender crown.

Unless you're saving seed, remove faded flowers promptly. When all buds have opened and the flowers faded, cut away the complete flower stems. When the leaves turn brown, cut away the entire stalk just above the soil to make room for new growth coming up from the base—and expect a second flowering in early fall.

Authorities seem to agree that except in most severe areas, little winter protection is needed. That, of course, is a general rule. If your soil tends to be moist and heavy, throw a thin layer of sand or coal ashes over the crown and overlay with pine boughs after the ground is thoroughly frozen.

Among the insects which attack delphinium, the mites — cyclamen and red spider—are the worst, but sprays with Malathion or Parathion used regularly, according to package directions, usually run them off. Symptoms are curled, crinkled, deformed new tip growth and flowers. Aphids which cluster at the tips are easy prey to almost any garden spray; leaf miners succumb to nicotine, caterpillars to arsenic. Read label on your all - purpose spray. It probably contains some or all of these chemicals. There are also commercial baits for snail - like slugs which munch by night on the crowns.

Diseases are more of a problem. If you see yellow lower leaves and the plant suddenly wilts, examine the crown. If it's soft and slimy the reason is probably crown rot caused by soil that's too hot, dry or too compact, or by having manure too close to the crown. You can't cure it but you can prevent its spread to other plants. Dig out all the soil in an 18-inch square to a depth of 12 inches and replace with fresh soil to which no manure has been added.

Irregular black spots on top of the leaves point to "black spot". This is a bacterial blight caused by long periods of cool, damp weather. It can be discouraged by dusting the leaves with sulfur. Delphiniums are also subject to fungus caused mildew. There are several preventives on the market for this.

When your delphiniums are established and flowering well, you may want more of the same or different varieties. You may need, too, to replace the casualties that do occur with this or any other type of garden plant. So it's a good idea to keep a new stock coming on from seed. You can pick your own and plant them immediately in cold frame or a flat you can keep moist. Protect the seedlings over winter and plant them out the following spring for flowering midway between the first and second bloom on your mature plants. You can also store them in an airtight container in your refrigerator (about 45°) and plant them outside in early fall or after frost the following spring. Starting the seeds indoors in February will produce plants large enough to flower toward the end of first summer.

If you buy seeds, you'll find they're usually offered in strains—the Round Table series makes a good bed. All plants from the same seed packet will not be identical, but very similar in color and size.

In England named varieties of delphiniums are reproduced by cuttings. For some reason, experts say our climate is not suitable for this practice. You can increase your planting, however, and benefit any clumps which are so old and thick that air circulation is impeded, by dividing each clump in fall or spring into three divisions of approximately the same size. Make clean cuts, disinfect the surfaces with something like sulphur and replant.

Who doesn't adore delphiniums? They're lovely with Madonna lilies, Canterbury bells, daylilies, or massed in the back of a perennial border. They make beautiful bouquets and flower compositions.

Plastic Carton Bunny

Frances M. Callahan

The youngsters on your Easter remembrance list will be delightfully surprised to receive one of these winsome, pint-sized bunnies as a change from the traditional Easter basket this year.

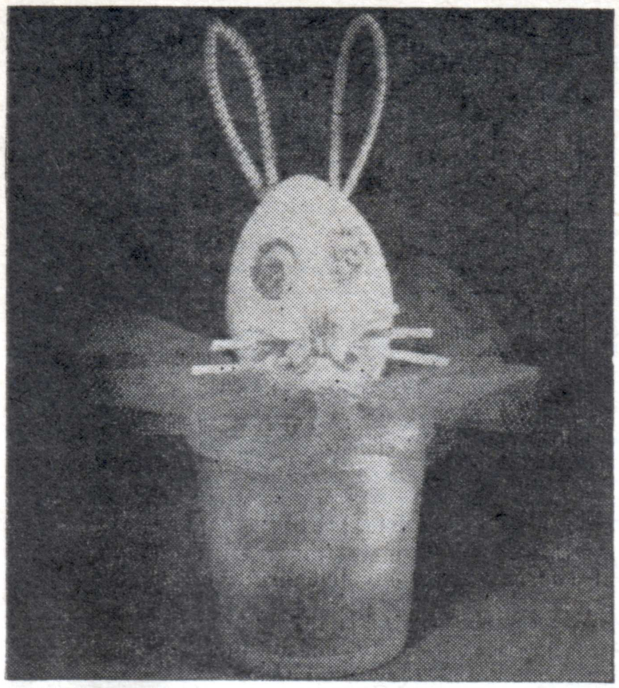
Almost any of the reuseable pint plastic containers (the kind available in grocery stores) are adaptable, providing the sides are either transparent or translucent enough so that the green paper grass and the gayly colored candy eggs are easily visible to the eager-eyed small fry.

To make Mr. Rabbit's head you'll need either an egg-shaped or a round ball of Styrofoam. If a Styrofoam egg is used, slice off enough on the large end to give a flat surface which will fit flush against the top of the carton. If a round ball of Styrofoam is used, a small section needs to be cut away too. Some plastic carton lids have lettering on them. Usually the lettering can be removed with scouring powder applied with a woven metal pad. If lettering is not removable, cut circle of white or pink paper and glue to top of lid before head and ruffle are put in place.

Use white casein glue to attach head to center of carton top and allow to dry several hours before you attempt to put on the facial features and ears.

Use pink pipe cleaners to make the ears, eyes, nose and mouth. Use three pieces of white pipe cleaner at each side of face for whiskers. Wherever you insert the pipe cleaners, use a little dab of glue to insure that the features will stay in place.

If you plan to make plastic carton bunnies for two or more children in the same family, you can vary the



To please the youngsters and to add a different touch this year, why not try perching Mr. Bunny atop a plastic Easter carton?

rabbits slightly and make it easier for each child to identify his own. For instance, you can make the neck ruffles from different colored net or even different types of materials. Ruffles can also be made from odd pieces of lace, ribbon or any soft material that has been pinked along the edges. Another way to vary the bunnies is to change the color of pipe cleaners used for ears. Use either white or pink or cut the ears from white or pink construction paper. Use pretty pink or glass buttons for the eyes instead of the pipe cleaners.

After the rabbit's facial features are in place, gather the material for the ruffle, using a long thread. Push material toward center of thread (as sketch shows), put around rabbit's neck and tie with ends of thread that were used for gathering.

To perk up exterior house walls try scrubbing them with hot soap suds followed by a rinse. This will postpone the need for repainting.

Live Longer and Better In

NEW MEXICO

THE HEALTHIEST, SUNNIEST CLIMATE

In All America

DO you know people who wake up to sunshine 355 days out of each year . . . people who don't know what it is to be oppressed by humid heat in the summer or by the cold clutch of winter damp? Do you know people who can say that in their State the rate of cancer and heart disease is only HALF of what the nation as a whole faces? Do you know people to whom a suntan is a year 'round commonplace, who work and play in a climate called America's healthiest?

We know such people. They live in New Mexico!

There isn't a state in the entire Union that gets the amount of sunshine which is lavished on New Mexico . . . not California, not Florida, nor Arizona nor Hawaii. There isn't a place on earth where the air is purer, where body health is more benignly bestowed.

And in all of New Mexico it would be difficult to match the climate and beauty of the region surrounding bright, charming Deming, located in the sub-tropical southwest portion of the State. Here, in the valley nestled alongside the gorgeous Florida Mountains, is DEMING RANCHETTES, only 5 miles from Deming itself. And here is where you can have a half-acre of your very own for only $199 complete . . . $5 down, $5 per month. In neighboring Las Cruces land such as this is selling for 10 times this price! A year from now may see prices in DEMING RANCHETTES just as high. To show you what we're talking about we want to send you FREE our thick portfolio containing facts, maps, and actual 4 color photographs. No obligation . . . no salesman will call. See for yourself. Remember: it's FREE. Simply fill out the coupon.

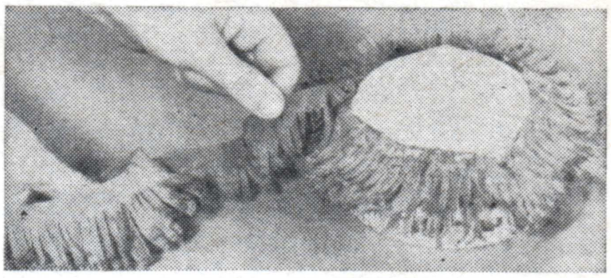
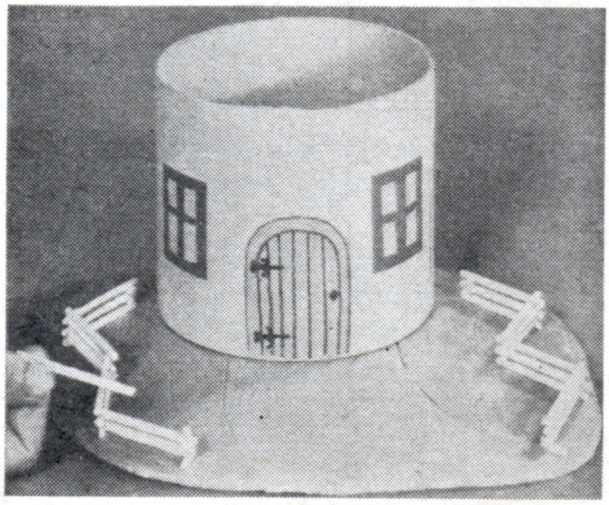
overlapping rows, until entire roof is covered to the peak (Photograph 3).



Photograph 3

Cut an irregular shaped piece of cardboard to make a lawn base for house. A piece of cardboard that measures about 9 x 11 inches before cutting to shape is about the right size. Cover cardboard with green construction paper or, if you want it to really look like grass, use green terry toweling. A piece of sandpaper makes a fine gravel path. Edge path with little pebbles glued on. Glue house in place at back of lawn. Make a snake type rail fence from matchsticks with the heads cut off.



Photograph 4

Fill the house with a nest of Easter grass and colored eggs or candy eggs and Easter novelties. Set roof in place. A little Easter bunny figure can be added, glued to lawn, or several fluffy cotton Easter chicks would be nice instead.

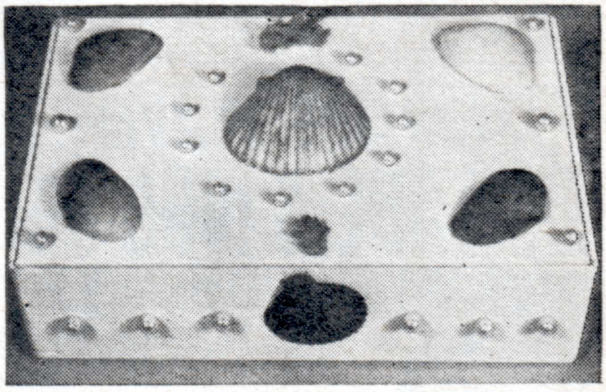
Handy Shell Box

Avon McCurdy



If you spend time looking for a handkerchief for your pocket or bag these lovely little shell boxes will solve your problem. They are easy to make and so attractive on your dressing table to keep clutter together and out of sight. Use them for jewelry, curlers, gloves or even sewing boxes. Whatever the use you will find practical as well as pretty.

A cigar box, self-adhering paper, paint, a small package of shells (these may be found in dime stores for small cost), a string of imitation pearl beads, food coloring and glue are the materials needed. First give box a coat of white paint. When it is completely dry apply a good high gloss enamel (this may be white or pastel) so it may be wiped with damp cloth when finger prints show.

When paint is dry, cover inside of box with self-adhering paper. Put small amount of food coloring in jar lids and use a small brush to color shells (if they are light color when purchased). These must be thoroughly dry when working with them so it is best to let them set over night.

Use white or clear glue to glue shells to box so it will not stain or discolor surface. Put largest shell in center of top of lid with smaller ones in corners.

If there are a few pieces of coral with shells, add to top and bottom of lid, leaving a little space between large shell.

Glue imitation pearl beads around shell and on end of lid with smaller shell in between. Glue beads and shell along side and ends.

These boxes are inexpensive to make and are very pretty. They are excellent gifts and are received joyfully by any girl for her precious trinkets.

er Painting

Spatter Painting

ating . It is ionery, a thing tistic designs is simple and the cost of low.

You will need these materials: a small square of wire screening, 8 by 8 inches, stapled to a wooden frame, old toothbrushes, water colors, ink or textile paints (if textile paints are used, a thinner of wood alcohol is needed in mixing the colors), a piece of corrugated cardboard 12 by 12 inches and common pins. I used leaves that had been dried and pressed in books for my designs; designs cut from stiff paper or taken from magazines or seed catalogs are also good subjects.

Place paper or other material to be decorated on the cardboard then pin the leaf or design in any corner of the paper, mix water color with water in a dish. With one hand hold the screen over the design and with the other hand dip the toothbrush in paint, shaking excess paint from brush to prevent blotting. Gently rub toothbrush over screen until the desired area around leaf or leaves is covered. When paint is dry, remove leaf from paper. The result of your labor is a silhouette of the leaf design surrounded by spattered color. Various colors can be used on one design by spattering the top of the paper with one color, the center with another and the bottom with a third. The three colors will blend into lovely variations.
